THE WEEK IN MAINE.

THE MOST IMPORTANT STATE NEWS BRIEFLY TOLD.

C. H. Nelson has sold Auburn, 2 1/2 A. C. for $14,000.

Burglars entered the post office at Bangor, and secured little.

The Maine State Union Society of Christian Endeavor meets at Bath, Sept. 24 and 25.

Contracts have been signed which insure the immediate completion of the projected railroad from Phillips to Bangor.

A young man in Cushing, who has been ill for some time, committed suicide by using a handkerchief around his neck and twisting it with a stick.

President Small reports the prospects for a large entering class at Colby this fall, the best. All the old unoccupied rooms in the dormitories are being newly painted and ready for occupancy.

The latest railroad gossip is that a syndicate proposes to buy the Bangor & Aroostook and build a road from Kalamazoo to Iron Works into Aroostook, and also build the B. & P. into Bangor, giving an independent line in opposition to that projected by the Maine Central.

Nearly two-thirds of the cities and towns in Maine have already sent in their inventories to the State valuation commission. There has been a large gain in the valuation in the last decade. The increased valuation of Bar Harbor alone amounts to over $5,000,000.

It is currently reported that Gov. Bangs has designated Judge A. E. Savage of Auburn, Judge Hall, of Waterville, and Gen. Sam'l Anderson, of Portland, to inquire into the system of taxation in our State, and to recommend a revision of the laws appertaining thereto.

Frederic Danforth, C. E., who is in charge of the surveys on the "Direct Line" through Aroostook, has telegraphed for more men and will commence excavating at once for the road location of the railroad. It will require two months or more to complete the final survey. He says that contracts will be made next month, when work will begin all along the line.

It is proposed to heat the insane hospital at Augusta with steam from a boiler at the mill of the Augusta Lumber Co., about half a mile from the hospital. The refuse of the mill, which has before been almost valueless, can be employed for fuel. A contract has been closed by which the trustees of the hospital are to pay the lumber company an annual sum of $10,000 for all the steam needed at the hospital.

John Detrick, of Augusta, who two months ago assaulted his wife, horribly mauling her, burning her thigh with a hot shovel and committing other crimes, so that her life was almost despaired of, has given himself up to the officers who have been vainly searching for him. He said he was drunk and his wife reproached him. He did not know he had injured her so badly. Anxiety about the crime made him almost insane. He shows evidence of terrible hardship.
